[Advertisement.]

DESIRABLE BUILDING LOTS .- In another column will be a und the particulars of a large and peremptory sale of building lots, which will take place to-morrow. The lots are on the Third and Fourth avenues. Ninety-ninth. One-hundreth and One-hundred and First streets, a few streets above Yorkville They are of full size, and command a spleneid view of the East River. It is high ground. There is probably sufficient building stone on the property to build all the houses, and the surplus soil can, not doubt, he sold to advantage for filling up lots a few streets above. The property all lies in one bidy, and from its peculiar location and advantages must soon become a populous and very important part of our City, and its purchase cannot but. be a safe and profitable investment of capital. Title perfect, and free from all incumbrances.

The New York Times

Published: April 26, 1852 Copyright © The New York Times